Affidavit and other evidence

In appeals before the IPC, evidence is often provided to satisfy particular factual or legal requirements or to provide background information. Where an exemption is claimed, evidence may be necessary to satisfy the criteria for the application of the exemption. In a written inquiry process, affidavit evidence may be desirable because, unlike other statements made to the Adjudicator, affidavit evidence is given under oath.

General

1. An affidavit is a written statement made under oath. Affidavits are a common method of providing evidence. An affidavit must be sworn or affirmed before a person who is qualified as a Commissioner for administering oaths or affirmations in the Province of Ontario.

Use of affidavit evidence

2. The IPC may request an affidavit to assist in its determination of factual issues in an appeal.

3. At the Mediation stage, where a Mediator believes that an affidavit may help to resolve the appeal, the Mediator may request a party to provide an affidavit to the IPC. In such a case, the Mediator will seek the consent of the party to provide another party or parties involved in the appeal with a copy of the affidavit. If the party consents to sharing the affidavit, the Mediator will provide a copy to the other party or parties.
4. Where the IPC requests an affidavit at the Adjudication stage of an appeal, the Notice of Inquiry will specify the relevant issues in the appeal and the types of information that should be included.
5. If a factual issue may be contentious, parties should consider providing their evidence concerning that issue to the IPC in affidavit form.

Further guidelines

6. An affidavit must contain information about the person swearing the affidavit, including the individual's name and an explanation of how he or she has knowledge of the evidence being presented in the affidavit (often satisfied by a description of the individual's qualifications and/or job responsibilities). The affidavit must also specify the municipality and county or region where the person swearing the affidavit resides.

7. Affidavit evidence should be detailed enough to allow the IPC and/or the other party or parties receiving it to fully understand its contents, and should, wherever possible, be confined to facts within the personal knowledge of the person swearing the affidavit. Sample affidavits are attached to this Practice Direction.
