This application is dismissed.

We are all of the view that the decision of this Court in Re John Doe et al and Information and Privacy Commissioner et al (1993) 13 O.R. (3d) 767 is dispositive of the issues raised in this case. In our view, the adjudicator gave to the legislation an interpretation which it could reasonably bear. The application is dismissed. Costs to the Respondent fixed in the sum of $2500.00.
